Featured Speakers:

Fr. Kazimierz Chwalek, MIC

Fr. Kaz was born in Poland and at the age of 13, he came to Washington, DC. In 1980 entered the Marians of the Immaculate Conception and was ordained in 1987. Fr. Kaz has served the community as Seminary Rector, House Superior, Provincial Treasurer and Director of the Association of Marian Helpers. Currently he is Vicar Provincial and Director of Evangelization & Development.

He has also assisted in the publication of St. Faustina's Diary in the original Polish and its English translation. Fr. Kaz has been living and promoting this message of Divine Mercy through publishing, conferences, seminars, and on radio and TV including EWTN.

He is the Vice President of NACOM the (North American Congress on Mercy) which will be held at the Basilica of the National Shrine of The Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC, November 14-15, 2009.

His love for Pope John Paul II led him to be the editor of the English Edition of The Making of the Pope of the Millennium: Kalendarium of the life of Karol Wojtyla, a compendium of primary sources that chronicle the life and activities of pre-pontifical period of John Paul II.

Marty Rotella singer, songwriter, speaker, producer, and most of all, evangelist, he has won several music awards for his inspirational songs. Marty will lead us through a journey in our souls directly to the Heart of Jesus. He's been seen on EWTN many times, including "Backstage" and in many other videos about Divine Mercy. He is on an energetic mission of evangelization. He has a very keen insight in to what it means to have a special personal relationship with Jesus. His very inspirational songs about Divine Mercy will elevate you to develop a love for Jesus and a love for souls. He has been a very popular guest at Divine Mercy conferences for many years.

Robert Allard, Founding Director of the Apostles of Divine Mercy, Bob has been promoting the celebration of the Feast of Divine Mercy ever since he received a miracle on his first Mercy Sunday in 1996. Bob came back to the faith after 25 years when he was shown his sins through an encounter with the Lord Jesus. His popular and most informative website www.DivineMercySunday.com has been a favorite for many years. His experience and insight into the correct celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday has led parishes to experience growth and prosperity. Bob has written for national magazines and newspapers about his favorite subject: saving all lost souls through Divine Mercy Sunday. He holds a certificate from the Pope John Paul II Institute of Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Massachusetts and he has recently appeared on EWTN TV on the "Abundant Life" with Johnnette Benkovic.

Deacon Vincent P. Ricciardi, Sr.

Deacon Vince is the Director of the Divine Mercy Healing Ministry of New Jersey. Not one to sit back, he has been promoting Divine Mercy for many years. God had a special plan for Deacon Vince, bringing him back from the jaws of death. His enthusiasm for the healing ministry and his positive energy are pleasantly contagious. He was recently seen on EWTN as the Deacon of the Eucharist for the Divine Mercy Sunday celebration in Stockbridge. Deacon Vince has worked with Several Sources Shelter Homes for Unwed Mothers for the last 20 years. He strongly believes in life and adoptions over death by any abortion. An advocate in cancer research he spends many hours in the cancer wards of Toms River and Brick Town, being with those who are suffering from cancer and bringing peace and tranquility from Our Lord Jesus. He is the organizer of this conference.
